Bringing ports under ESMA

2998. SHRI SAMAN PATHAK: Will the Minister of SHIPPING, ROAD TRANSPORT AND HIGHWAYS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware that disruption in operation by unions in major ports affect adversely on the country's economic development;

(b) if so, whether Government propose to declare such disruptions illegal and bring the ports under ESMA; and

(c) if so, the details thereof and if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF SHIPPING ROAD TRANSPORT AND HIGHWAYS (SHRI T. R. BAALU): (a) to (c) Central Essential Services Maintenance Act 1981, came into force on 23rd September 1981. The life of the original Act was extended up to 1990. Further extension was examined in consultation with the State Governments and the Central Ministries and Departments and it was decided not to extend the term of the Act further and the Act lapsed in September 1990. Many of the States are having their own ESM Acts which inter alia confer the powers upon the State Governments to declare any service as essential service.
